A/C Jackson,

Courtney, below, is the person we have been dealing with at Vintra. She was off work due to her kid's spring break on the day of the meeting 4-23-19. Gary Young was a fill-in guy (the first guy that said 'umm' a lot). I think Gary Young may be higher up the chain of command at Vintra. Courtney has been very helpful, very personable, and was able to answer questions in an understandable fashion.

Hey Erin,

I thought I would send you the official estimate ahead of your meeting coming up, just in case that would be useful to move the project forward.

Please reach out if you need any other documentation, etc.

Speak soon,

We need to talk before reaching out to Vintra. It appears their pricing is somewhat fluid and if we can get it cheaper, all the better.

Brian.

Jared, Erin and Becky:

Thank you for the presentation. I believe that Vintra will assist you in building on an existing strength of LPD and a need that supports our agency's mission. You are clear to begin the process of purchasing the software.

In order to sustain this rather expensive endeavor, I need data to evaluate the successes. This can be combined with studies that have been completed in the past showing increased clearance rates, etc.

As you work through the purchase, please get me 3 to 5 ways in which we can objectively evaluate it.

Have a great weekend.

Jeff
